InFlorence Academy

Where else should you learn Italian than in the city that gave birth to fine arts - and where eating typical Tuscan dishes and local sourced produce in Trattorie is as good as it gets? We highly recommend you opt for InFlorence Academy, the first language school established in Florence, located in a 16th Century building that strongly evokes the Renaissance period.

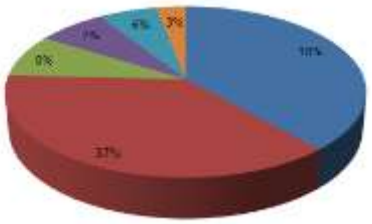

The school is surrounded by world famous sights, the cosiest of cafés and most intriguing of markets. Crossing the Ponte Vecchio to get your daily dose of Italian gelato and espresso will be just one of the many things you will do while experiencing Florence's artistic ambience.
